

BAY MINETTE MAN IS KILLED BY WOMAN

Bay Minette, Ala., Oct. 8.—A sensational killing occurred opposite the Arcade building on the principal street of Bay Minette, Sunday night, when W. H. Ray, a well known hardware merchant, was shot dead by Mrs. Mary Doherty, resident of the county living near Daphne.

People in the business places on the street heard the shot and when they got to Ray's life was extinct, the body lying in the roadway. The woman disappeared and was not found until this morning, when the sheriff and a deputy arrested her at the home of a friend near Stapleton, the first station on the Foley branch of the Louisville and Nashville out of Bay Minette. She had walked the entire distance, more than ten miles, in the night and was in a pitiable condition when taken in charge by officers.

It is apparent that Mrs. Drath, who is of German extraction and said to be a widow conducting a farm in Baldwin county, laid in wait for Ray and advanced upon him in the road as he was returning to his boarding house, opposite the Arcade building.

The authorities have learned that trouble over the loaning of money by Mrs. Drath to Ray was responsible for the killing. The sum loaned is said to have been $3,000 and the woman had made several efforts to obtain the return of the money, or some part of it. Failing in this, it is claimed, Mrs. Drath threatened to collect the money by force.

It is believed that the loaning of her savings through a loan to Ray to proceed on the woman's mind that it unbalanced her reason.

Ray had been in the hardware business for a number of years and had many friends who deplore the tragedy.

IN MEMORY OF LITTLE RALPH KELLEY.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Kelley, Monday morning, October 8th, and claimed for his own, their little son, Ralph.

He suffered one week and human hands did all they knew, but nothing could ease the precious one, which God claimed for His own. We will miss his sweet voice and loving way but God knew best and "His will be done," although we feel sorry and greatly regret the loss. But we must strive to meet him in the great beyond where there will be no more parting and no more suffering. Although he was very sick he bore his suffering with patience until the Master said "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Cheer up loved ones, and try to realize he's sleeping peacefully and strive to meet him in the golden bye and bye.

ALABAMA MAN FRIENDLY SHOT

Clarksdale, Miss., Oct. 8.—Two men were wounded—one of them probably fatally late today, in a shooting affray alleged to have been the culmination of an argument over the winnings of a crap game in a hotel last night. R. P. Longshore, traveling salesman, of Birmingham, Ala., was shot in the back. He is not expected to recover. Allan Moore, proprietor of the hotel, received several flesh wounds, none of which physicians believe will prove serious. W. K. Herin, Jr., young planter, is under arrest charged with the shooting.

It is said that Longshore and Moore won a considerable sum of money and that Herin paid them with a $2,000 check.

The planter went to the hotel today, according to authorities, and accused Longshore and Moore of "framing" him. They refused to surrender the check, it is said, and the shooting followed. The three men were alone in a hotel room at the time. Herin refused to make a statement tonight.

GRAND JURY RETURNS 24 BILLS

office is kept neat and the books and papers to be well arranged and easily accessible. We find the bonds of the several County Officers to be sufficient, however, we fail to find the bond of the Sheriff as it seems to be misplaced. His bond, however is duly recorded as is recorded as is sufficient.

Oswell Dowling, C. R. Tyndol, W. G. Williams, We, your Committee appointed to inspect the County Jail, submit the following report:

We find all prisoners to be well fed and properly cared for by the Jailor, Deputy Sheriff J. H. Wise. We find the building to be clean and sanitary condition. Since the last session of the Grand Jury the jail has been painted throughout, two coats of paint being applied on the inside of the building on glass, and two coats on the outside, and the roof has been painted. Also the doors and windows have been screened, new beds have been provided, new toilet put in. Deputy Wise is to be commended for his service in reference to the jail, and also the County authorities for the repairs and improvements made. The property is now in good condition and is being well cared for.

S. A. Bowers, John H. Johnson, Dock Wilson, We, as a committee of the Grand Jury of Coffee County have inspected the court house and find it clean and in good shape, freshly painted and in sanitary condition, for which we want to thank our Commissioner, Mr. Inspector and the Tax Collector and Tax Assessor's records which we found neatly kept and in good condition. We want to thank J. A. Carley, Mrs. T. D. Kendrick, Miss Mattie Kendrick, Mrs. Roy Bullard, Miss Lydia Williams, Mary Alice Simmons, Louis W. W. Lewis and Jimmie Horn.

From the receiving line they were ushered to the beautifully decorated punch table where Miss Sarah Albert Carley and Ada Parker presided. They were then conducted to the bride's room by Mrs. J. W. Kendrick, to write a wish for the bride. Mrs. Vardie Wright presided over the bride's book. The program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Madge Pave a piano solo by Miss Jimmie Horn, a "Good Evening" song and an original poem by Mrs. J. W. Kendrick. The prize for the contest, a dainty guest towel, was won by Miss Mattie Kendrick who very graciously presented it to the bride.

As Miss Annie Laurie Bullard played three little maidens, Louise Tucker, Louise Johnson and Jean Brock danced in and holding their magic wands over the bride, led her to the dining room which represented a fairy land. Just as they passed through the door leading to the dining room the fairies pulled white ribbons which were suspended from a yellow basket and showered the bride with rice.

In "Fairy-land" they found a table beautifully decorated and laden with many pretty and useful gifts. The table was guarded by two little maidens, Christine Johnson and Mary Ruth Fleming. A delicious salad course was served. On each plate was a small white wedding bell tied with yellow ribbon.

Miss Carley was strikingly beautiful on this occasion. She wore an exquisite gown of Beaver gray clinging crepe, with accessories to match. Her hair was styled in the "Topsy" and Kendrick will be an interesting event at the bride's home on October 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kendrick and Miss Lydia Williams visited in Troy Thursday afternoon. We wish to recommend that all appropriators make reports and file the same with the Court of County Commissioners and furnish the next session of the Grand Jury with the following information: A. The names of overseers, who may be in default of working the full ten days. B. The condition of the roads and bridges in their respective road precincts. C. The names of persons liable to road work who failed or refused to work after due warning. D. The names of all overseers who did good work on their roads. E. This information will aid the Grand Jury in making proper reports at the next session. We wish to commend the Probate Judge and County Commissioners in their undertaking to improve the public roads and bridges. Respectfully, J. W. Moore, C. W. Clark, Jr., D. W. Oliver, Committee.

We, your Committee appointed to inspect the County Jail, submit the following report:

KILLS LARGE RATTLESNAKE

Mr. Loyal Phillips, who lives on Route 6, was here one day last week and reported the killing of a large rattlesnake in his field on Wednesday.

Mr. Phillips was going through the field and almost stepped on the rattlesnake, which struck at him and only missed him a few inches. The snake was about 3 1/2 feet long and carried five rattles.

CHURCH OF CHRIST IS WILD AUTO PLOUGHS ORGANIZED AT TROY INTO GROUP OF CHILDREN; ONE IS KILLED

BY EVAN W. T. GRIDER

Troy Messenger says:
The tent meeting conducted by Evangelist W. T. Grider assisted by Fred M. Little of the Catoma Street Church of Christ, Montgomery, Ala., under the auspices of the Church of Christ closed with the service Friday night, Oct. 3.

This meeting was the means of getting together more than thirty members of the church of Christ who will meet regularly in the hall over the First National Bank Building until their house is completed. A nice well located lot was purchased on the corner of Walnut and Cherry Streets just across from City School building and we hope to build within a few months.

We feel that this meeting was a success in every way and we are indeed grateful to those who gave their assistance in the many different ways. The cooperation of the city was fine indeed and this co-operation went a long way toward making the meeting a success.

We also wish to express our appreciation to the daily papers for the publicity given the meeting, reporting each sermon in part and getting our efforts before the public. The band of Christians gotten together is indeed a fine people. They have a determination to go ahead and build on the cause here and we know with a body of people like these behind the movement that we will soon see gratifying results in the way of a permanent meeting place. We feel that a long step forward has been made in the purchasing of this beautiful lot and we are always ready to co-operate with them in any way possible.

JAKE CRENSHAW GIVEN FREEDOM BY BUTLER JURY

BY BUTLER JURY

Grenville, Ala., Oct. 12.—After four hours of deliberation, the jury in the Jake Crenshaw case returned a verdict of not guilty. The case has been one of the most celebrated in the criminal annals of Butler County. The negro has been tried five times, charged with the murder of Mrs. Foster Gafford in 1920. The murder aroused great feeling at the time and a special term of court was called for the trial of Crenshaw.

The negro was kept in the Montgomery county jail for safe keeping and when he was brought to Greenville for the first trial he was under guard of special deputies heavily armed with rifles. The trial resulted in conviction and he was sentenced to be hanged but the verdict was reversed by the supreme court. The second trial resulted in a nonagreement by the jurors. The defense was represented by C. P. Beddow and Ben F. Ray, of Birmingham, and the state was represented at different times by Calvin Poole, H. P. Reddick, H. T. Stoddard, and Will Hill. In the trial that just closed new evidence was introduced by the defense that greatly strengthened their case.

From its inception the case has been surrounded with many unusual conditions and mystery.

THREE CHILDREN ARE BURNED TO DEATH IN PHENIX CITY FIRE
Phenix City, Ala., Oct. 13.—Three children, Marvin, 14, Dorothy, 9, and Elsie, 7, of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hart, were burned to death in their home here early tonight. The building was destroyed and firemen say other persons were rescued. The charred bodies of two of the victims were recovered shortly after the fire was placed under control. A search was being made for the third body. Firemen stated that the origin of the fire was unknown but they indicated that it started in a staircase leading to the second floor of the dwelling. The three children occupied rooms on this floor and all escape was cut off. The Hart's resided on the second floor of a brick building, the ground floor being occupied by a merchant store. The police stated they had received a report that the stairway flared up in flames and it had been killed. An investigation was started. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Camps, who operate the small grocery on the ground floor of the building, told the police that the fire started at the top of the stairway and that in their opinion was accidentally set by the children while playing. The flames spread rapidly they said, cutting off the only exit the children had to escape.

What The People Think
The people of Alabama are not willing to let a few disgruntled politicians and a few misguided sentimentalists make heroes of desperate criminals by providing for luxuries and idleness among these criminals and the people are unwilling to have a tax of two million dollars unloaded on their shoulders to take care of the convicts when these felons are capable of self support.—Sheffield Standard.

NEW GRAND JURY WILL PROBE MUTINY

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 15.—Investigations of conditions at Banner Mines, scene of a recent convict mutiny, will be resumed before the week passes by the Jefferson county grand jury. It was believed today as the fall body began its labor under the direction of County Solicitor James G. Davis. The probe will include a visit by the jurors to the scene of the mutiny together with the subpoenaing of several convicts there, it was thought today as observers read into the charge of Judge William E. Fort what many believed to be an assertion of the body's right to take such measures in its investigation.

James R. Carter, a salesman, is foreman of the new grand jury, which was charged by the one which recently ended its labors to continue an investigation of conditions leading up to the Banner mutiny. It is thought that there will be no startling developments.

The greatest builders in the world are those who build character. Men have built houses, roads and temples that have lasted for generations, empires that lasted for centuries, but those who build character fabricate something that will last to eternity.

Build into your character the foundation of industry, efficiency and economy. With these success is certain. Whohearted industry brings out the best that is in us and drives out evil.

DAIRY COWS WILL PAY THE DEBTS OF WIREGRASS FARMERS

Recently Mr. C. W. Larson, chief of the Dairy Division, United States Department of Agriculture, made the following interesting statement:
"The United States is the greatest gold-producing nation and has been, year after year, maintaining its high rate of gold production. Now, let us suppose we are going to pay the farmers for their dairy products for one year with gold dollars. Suppose that way back in 1885 we had taken all the gold produced that year and made it into gold dollars, and suppose we had done the same in 1886 and had kept on each year up to 1900, still making every ounce of gold that was mined into gold dollars. Suppose we had kept on through the twentieth century up to the present time. The total of all these dollars would only be sufficient to pay the farm value of one year's dairy products."

"This is the greatest livestock nation in the world. We have immense herds of dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep and swine. If we had sold all the best cattle on all the farms in the United States on January 1st, 1921, and if we had herded into the market every sheep and lamb in the United States, then raised another crop and sold those on January 1st, 1922; then if we had sold all of the hogs January 1st, 1921 (and we are the leading swine producing country) and raised another crop of swine as big as we had before and sold those on January 1st, 1922, we would just about have enough money to pay the farm value of dairy products for the year 1921."

"But, after we sold all our best cattle, sheep and swine we would not have these industries; we would be out of business."

"At the end of 1921 we still had the dairy cows which were worth $1,241,767,000. These same cows which produced the tremendous value of $2,100,000,000 will continue year in and year out to produce an equal if not greater value."

Is it any wonder that "Cows pay debts?"
Is it any wonder that bankers and business men are preaching the gospel and "cow milking in their communities?"

Mr. H. F. Johnson of the Sioux Falls Bank and Trust Company of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, is one of the most potential forces in the state. His bank, with its two hundred correspondent banks, feels keenly the responsibility, or lack of it, among the farmers and business men of that state. Sitting as a member of the Federal Reserve Board, Mr. Johnson noticed the almost innumerable applications for loans from certain farming sections while he also noted an absence of calls from other sections. He found on investigation that the conservative banks, where diversified farming, based on cow milking, was practiced, were able to finance themselves without any help from the Federal Reserve. He also found the demand for money in sections where there were no cows and where grains were sold from the farm in their raw state, almost bordered on a panic. The daily clipping of cash coupons in the dairy sections is as regular and dependable as night following the day. Many farmers today will testify that for the past few years "Old Brindle" has been the meal ticket.

When Mr. Johnson returned to Sioux Falls, after his investigation, he added another department to his banking business—the Dairy Development Department. He sent out word, through all his correspondent banks, that the Sioux Falls Bank and Trust Company would finance any farmer in the purchase of goods cows. He even went further and loaned money to those who purchased good dairy cattle and placed them with farmers who wanted them. The Dairy Development Department of the Sioux Falls Bank and Trust Company has been in operation a little over a year now and has placed in the hands of farmers of South Dakota over 1,200 good milk cows and many more head of calves.

Mr. Johnson does not plan for his bank to make any profit directly from the purchase and sale of cows. If he can maintain his development department at no loss he is well pleased. His bank is rendering a true service to South Dakota. The movement started by Mr. Johnson is spreading over the entire state, so that the agricultural interests of South Dakota that permanent prosperity

WAR EXPLOSIVE AVAILABLE FOR ALL FARMERS

Sodotol Used in Land Clearing, Ditching and Other Work on a Farm.

AUBURN, ALA., OCT. 1.—(Special.)—In line with established policy of salvaging war materials for constructive purposes, announcement is made by L. C. LeBron, of the Agricultural Engineering Department will be guaranteed. The work they are doing is simply taking out an insurance policy on prosperity.

The movement has already, in one year, gained great momentum and in Mr. Johnson's words, "promises to become one of the largest departments in our bank." So rapidly in fact, is the plan growing and succeeding that if ever another financial depression appears, South Dakota will be prepared. She will depend on her cow and her cows will not disappoint her.

DO COWS PAY DEBTS? They most certainly do, and more. They prevent debts. With them a permanent system of agriculture can be carried on—a system that builds and conserves soil fertility—a system that places farming on a cash basis. A large amount of feed which would otherwise be wasted on the farm is marketed through the dairy cow. She is the greatest gift that a munificent Maker has given us.

In order that any Alabama farmer may secure a large or a small amount of sodotol the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation has made a distributing arrangement and will cooperate with the Extension Service in other ways in the distribution of this explosive.
To reach the farmers directly the Government is distributing sodotol through the U. S. Department of Agriculture which, in turn, is represented by the Agricultural College and Extension Service in each state, and the county agents have been authorized to receive orders and render other necessary assistance to the farmers in getting it.

For several years farmers have been using explosive in land clearing, ditching, and other work, and in the opinion of Mr. LeBron Alabama farmers will take advantage of this offer by the government, making it possible for them to do their ditching, clearing, and other explosive work at a very small cost.

Another feature that is bound to please the thousands of visitors at this year's fair will be the Alabama Industrial School Band consisting of thirty six musicians that have won an enviable reputation throughout the entire country including many of the largest cities where they have appeared.

Enterprise, Ala. Oct. 4th. Up to October 1st Enterprise warehouse have weighed three thousand three hundred and fifty six bales of cotton of the new crop, just fifteen hundred less than at the same time last year.

Due to the heavy rain and the boll weevil the crop for this section will be short but not as short as many predicted at the beginning of the picking. Corn and peanuts are very much better and there are plenty of sweet potatoes.

DIVERSIFICATION FARMING NEED
Alabama, Ala., Oct. 3.—Declaring that the most price for cotton is due in as small degree to insects and unfavorable weather and warning against the danger of allowing these prices to induce the planting of too much cotton next spring, Percy B. Darnall, Editor of the Florence Herald, is appealing for more diversified farming.

On the cotton situation Mr. Darnall said, "There was sufficient acreage planted to cotton in the South this year to have produced, with favorable weather and no insect damage, around 16,000,000 bales, and it would have brought, perhaps, 12 to 14 cents a pound."

In a statement regarding other products he said, "Right now in Florence poultry is scarce and high; our creamery cannot get cream enough to supply the demand for its products and hay is high and has to be shipped in from other sections. Other products which might be and ought to be raised right here in Lauderdale County are not to be unless we send away for them."

Officials of the Agricultural College here declare that a similar condition exists in many other Alabama counties. A good opportunity is present, therefore, for farmers to supply their local markets, leaving cotton a "clean surplus" which will bring prosperity to any section.

This Wonder Band will be heard at the Southeast Alabama Fair October 22 to 27 in a program of best classical and popular music both afternoon and evening at which time a special program including many solo numbers duets, etc have been arranged. John Phillip Sousa, the celebrated bandmaster, said of this band "This is one of the finest organizations of its kind I have ever heard" General John J. Pershing also said of it "This band plays some of the best march music I have ever heard" while Evangeline Booth the famous Salvation Army Commander said "Birmingham and the State of Alabama should feel proud of having such an organization."

TERRIFIC FLOODS ARE SWEEPING WESTERN PART OF OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 14.—Western Oklahoma, with hundreds of acres along the north Canadian and south Canadian rivers inundated was tonight experiencing its worst flood, according to reports received here.

Communication with nearly thirty northwestern Oklahoma and western Texas towns has been destroyed, telephone officials stated. Woodward and Blair, Okla., are completely isolated.

Fifty miles west of Oklahoma City, persons were rescued today in boats from the upper stories of their homes near Geary where the north Canadian extends for several miles beyond its banks. Farmers leaving their property and stock to the flood, have hurriedly departed and the river is reported running in deep brown torrents over a seven mile expanse of ordinary dry land.

Five feet higher than any previous record, the North Canadian is gathering force and rushing toward Oklahoma City sweeping bridges, homes, farm buildings and debris of every kind along with it. More than six inches of rainfall in three days, has visited the vast territory.

At El Reno, further down the stream from the scene of the worst damage and but thirty miles above Oklahoma City, the North Canadian is said to be running three miles wide and four feet higher than last June, when the state's most costly flood occurred. Information from El Reno reported a steady rise in the stream.

Night fall found families from the river district in Oklahoma City moving their household goods and live stock from Walnut Grove. Cities police and several firemen in boats paddled slowly with a cow or a horse swimming behind.

The Salvation Army Red Cross and city auditorium were giving aid in the flooded areas.

COLEMAN SHOTS TWO THEN TURNS GUN ON HIMSELF

Danville, Va., Oct. 10.—William O. Williams, prominent Danville business man, was killed and Mrs. Williams was gravely injured early this afternoon by Ben C. Coleman, member of a widely known Coleman family of Virginia who then committed suicide.

The tragedy took place in the home of Mrs. W. O. Stranger, where all of the principals in the affair resided and while many were at dinner. A fusillade of pistol shots rang out and both Mr. and Mrs. Williams fell. Coleman then walked calmly upstairs, locked himself in and shot himself. In the immediate hysteria of the household this shot was not heard and officers searching for Coleman did not at first see him lying on the floor beside the bed.

Among Coleman's effects was found a paper which a police officer began reading. Before he had read two lines Coroner E. J. Taylor silenced the officer and took charge of the paper, refusing to divulge its contents.

UNIVERSITY STUDENT CHOKES TO DEATH

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Oct. 13.—Found unconscious on the campus of the University of Alabama Friday night about 8:30 o'clock choking from some obstruction in his throat, Bolton Brown, of Cullman, Washington County, Ala., member of the freshman class of the University, died some time later at the Druid City Hospital here, without ever regaining consciousness.

The body was shipped to his home Saturday for interment.

A man may be too busy at the office to attend a funeral—unless it is that of the home team.

CAR WORKS BURN AT GADSDEN WITH LOSS OF $300,000

Gadsden, Ala., Oct. 11.—Fire of undetermined origin early Thursday morning destroyed the erecting shed of the Gadsden Car Works, a subsidiary of the Southern Railway, throwing 700 men out of employment and causing a loss estimated at not less than $300,000.

Sixty six new box cars ready for delivery were burned, together with the tools of 400 workmen and several small buildings, including that of the air brake department.

The erecting shed was 200 feet wide and 600 feet long. Twelve tracks running into the shed were burned.

Two stores, one residence and a grist mill and other small buildings in the immediate vicinity were burned at a loss of about $6,000, while a number of houses and a gasoline filling station were badly damaged.

The main car plant was saved, largely through the work of the company own fire-fighting force and equipment.

Every section of house and every truck in Gadsden and Alabama City were used in combating the flames, which threatened the entire neighborhood.

It is expected that the shop will be rebuilt as soon as material can be assembled.

TOWN OF MARION HAS $18,000 FIRE

Marion, Ala., Oct. 13.—Marion suffered serious loss by fire at midnight Friday when the livery stable owned by Eugene McCollum and operated by W. T. Tanton and the African Methodist Church were totally destroyed. Mr. McCollum's loss was $6,000 with no insurance. Mr. Tanton lost all hay and implements along with five horses and five mules. Dr. R. C. Hanna lost two fine saddle horses which were insured for $1,000. P. C. Cook lost an automobile truck valued at $1,000 with no insurance. The City of Marion lost valued at $500, which were not insured. The colored church was valued at $3,000 and carried no insurance. Mr. Tanton's loss will be $5,000 with no insurance.

POISON LIQUOR KILLS 4 AND PUTS 3 IN HOSPITAL

Pana, Ill., Oct. 11.—Four men are dead and three are expected to live, resulting from poison liquor. Two local soft drink parlors were named in the report of the coroner's jury as the places where the men bought the liquor. The three men critically ill are in the Hubert Memorial hospital in Pana and every physician in town is attending them.

Occasionally a girl discovers that the young man after her own heart is not after it at all.

There is a police court magistrate in Birmingham who is worthy of all honor and praise. He discouraged a gentleman who had been hauled into court on a charge of tucking his shirttail in his pants in the streets right out before everybody. The judge ruled that a gentleman has a right to tuck his shirt in. This is significant. It shows that the bill of rights has not been nullified everywhere.—Montgomery Advertiser.

NOTICE TAXPAYERS!

TO ALL TAXPAYERS WHO PAID TAXES DUE IN COFFEE COUNTY FOR THE TAX YEAR 1920:—

In order to determine as definitely as possible the taxes paid in Coffee County for the Tax Year 1920—which taxes became collectible on October 1st, 1920, and were evidenced on the books and receipts which disappeared from the county offices February 18th, 1921, notice is hereby given to all tax payers and request is hereby made that they file with Honorable S. H. Brock, at Elba, Alabama, whom I have authorized to receipt for same, any receipt given to them by either Tax Collector, Hon. Fred Folsom, or Tax Collector Hon. J. D. Lee, in payment of taxes for said year; and if receipts given to them have been misplaced or lost, such tax payers are requested to file cancelled checks, drafts or other evidence of payment of said taxes.

The full and immediate operation of all the tax payers of Coffee County is earnestly urged in order that satisfactory settlement of the tax matters of the year mentioned may be had.

It is my intention as Chief Examiner of Accounts of the State to detail Examiners to make full determination of these tax matters, such investigation to begin not later than the first day of November.

All receipts or other papers filed with Mr. Brock will be carefully protected and promptly returned after the State Examiners have opportunity to inspect them.

OKLAHOMA FLOOD RECEDING AFTER WREAKING HAVOC

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 16.—Staggered by the greatest flood in the history of the state and virtually isolated by rail and highway, Oklahoma City tonight sheltered her little army of refugees and waited for the muddy turbulent expanse of the North Canadian river to recede and reveal the damage it had wrought.

Although the river had fallen approximately two feet from the twenty-five foot crest that swept down on the city at 5 o'clock this morning, the swift rush of the waters was still swirling through streets heretofore considered immune from the ravages of the flood stream.

More than 2,000 of the 15,000 persons who fled before the onrush of the water still were homeless tonight. They are quartered in hotels and churches throughout the city. The remainder of the host had returned to their homes by means of vehicles that passed, often hub deep, through the streets still filled with back water.

The known dead list stood at two, but city officials and members of rescue crews declared it probably would be greater when the receding waters make possible a thorough search of the flooded areas.

The dead thus far known are Mrs. E. H. Loe and her daughter Clara, 8 years old, who were drowned when a boat in which they attempted to gain land, after trying an effort to save personal effects, was caught in the mill-race at Wheeler Park, a municipal resort, and capsize.

Loss and another daughter, Bessie, 10, were rescued from the top of a large tree into which they had climbed when the boat went over. They had been there twelve hours when a skiff driven by two intrepid oarsmen finally nosed its way among the trees in the park and brought them to safety.

Loss was taken to a hospital where her condition was pronounced serious as a result of exposure.

Rescue squads were still working at top speed tonight. A negro family brought to land over more than a mile of racing waters told their rescuers that at least 75 other negroes were marooned on the brow of a hill, the only unsubmerged spot on what had been a negro settlement. They were reported without food or water and efforts were being made to bring them to safety.

ACTIVE AT 78 YEARS.

As active today as he was years ago, Will Harville, 77, is the patriarch of the Bay Minette section. Mr. Harville has resided on the Bay Minette road for 58 years, having settled down in that vicinity. He recently married a second wife. He is the father of ten children and has over 200 grand and great-grand children. He is active about the farm and seemingly enjoys manual labor.

SOUTHERN INDUSTRIAL CASH

The facts to support this claim are formidable. The South has $1,000,000,000 more capital invested in manufacturing than the United States had in 1880. Its investment in cotton mills is five times as great as the National investment in 1880. It produces almost as much pig iron, more than twice as much coal, and 12 times as much petroleum as the Nation did in 1880.—Alabama Traveler.

DECREASE IN FUNDS

Shrinkage in returns from the three mill tax will result in a decrease of approximately $200,000 in the amount available for Alabama schools during the coming year. The per capita sum to be distributed to counties this year will be only $4.33 as against $4.59 for the previous year. It is unfortunate that this shrinkage in school funds should be developing at a time when greater demands are being made upon the schools all over the state and when there is more interest and larger attendance in the schools than ever before.

The desire for education is almost universal. Parents are making sacrifices to give their children proper schooling. They have been willing to vote the extra three mill taxes for the support and maintenance of their schools. They have endeavored cheerfully when even shown that the money was needed to give improved school facilities.

It will, therefore, be unexpected to learn that, in spite of what they have done, the returns are less and that school efficiency may be to that extent curtailed.

There is a reason to believe that some are not paying their share of taxes, and that the tendency towards tax-dodging in recent years has gained such momentum that it will effect not only the schools, but every other work for which the taxes are utilized. The people see a prosperous state going ahead with new gains in industrial and commercial life each year, and yet showing a decrease in its assessed property values. When this situation is understood in the rural districts in Alabama there is reason to look for a proper system of tax equalization which will largely remove the obstacles standing about by escape, evasions and under assessment.—Birmingham Age Herald.

FOUR SEAMEN DROWN ON RAFT AFTER THEY ARE SHIPWRECKED

New Orleans, La., Oct. 14.—Four men were drowned when the oil tanker Fidget of New Orleans and the death of four members of the crew of five off the north shore of Breton Island in the Gulf of Mexico on October 7, was brought to the quarantine station at the mouth of the Mississippi river today by the lone survivor, Bengard Johann Olsen Rydminson, of Hangesund, Norway.

Rydminson, in a dazed condition, was found wandering early today on the hunting by sense of Joseph Leiter of Chicago by Gus Perrence, keeper of the hunting lodge. After being given food and clothing he was taken to the quarantine station. He told quarantine officials he had been with out food or fresh water for seven days, during which time he had been lashed to an upturned raft which drifted into Cupid's Gap, a half mile from the quarantine station two hours before he was found by the lone survivor.

On the morning of October 6 Rydminson said he was signed up as a member of the crew of the Fidget, a 60 foot boat, by Captain G. Cabrich and was told the vessel was leaving on a trial trip to Havana. He sailed the same day with the captain and three other men, Ole Johnson and two others, who he knew as John and Memphis.

Arriving in the gulf the Fidget encountered rough weather. Everything went right until the following evening when the vessel sprang a leak within a few miles of Breton Island. Efforts to repair the damage were unsuccessful and the captain gave orders for the construction of a raft out of timbers from the cabin and life belts. The ship was abandoned about 7 p. m. and Rydminson said the crew taking to the raft.

The Fidget went down about midnight. During the night all members of the crew with the exception of Rydminson were washed from the raft several times, but each time was rescued. At daybreak a huge wave swept over the raft, carrying with it all members of the crew but Rydminson, who managed to save himself by clinging to a rope tied around the timbers of the float.

For six days Rydminson said he drifted in the gulf, practically at all times within sight of land. His raft finally beached at Cupid's Bay at daybreak today. He said several vessels passed within two or three miles of him, while he was drifting, but none of them made an effort to stop to attract their attention by waving his shirt were in vain.

Rydminson was placed on board a steamship at quarantine and was being brought up the river to be placed in the marine hospital here for treatment. He showed the effects of his experience, his face and hands being badly blistered and his lips swollen two or three times their natural size from lack of water.
